A REPUBLIC CAPITAL ACCESS NEWSLETTER

Liquidity Events

Republic Capital Access is thrilled that four of its customers have realized significant liquidity events in the last several months.

- CyberCore acquired by a global IT equipment manufacturer
- SecuriGence sold to Chenega
- CyberKinetics merged with AE Industrial Partners platform company
- Night Shift Development, Inc. acquired by publicly traded Snowflake

"While it is an honor to help business owners achieve their dreams, it is especially rewarding when the businesses are essential to protecting our homeland and our citizens," said Ed Stucky, President & CEO. "We are grateful for the opportunity to work with the owners and management teams of these extraordinary companies."

We welcome conversations about how our non-dilutive financing program can increase a company's transaction value with public markets, private equity sponsors, and strategic acquirers.
